

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
BLOOMINGTON

SPIRE Conference Schedule

Saturday, March 15, 2014

Unless otherwise noted, all events take place in Woodburn Hall, Social Science Research Commons (SSRC)

- 9:30-10:00am Continental Breakfast (Location: Rawles Room)
- 10:00-10:45am Immigrant Political Ambition: New American Leaders and the Quest for Political Office. Paru Shah and Tyler Reny (University of Wisconsin and University of Washington)
- 10:45-11:30am Between the Experiment and the Election: The Moderating Effects of Party Support on Racial Bias and Vote Choice. Eric Juenke, William Isaac, and Katherine Morris (Michigan State University)
- 11:30am-12:45pm Lunch (Location: Rawles Room)
- 12:45-1:30pm Mirrored Threat: Political Responses to Denigrating Group Messages in the Media. Vanessa Cruz (University of Michigan)
- 1:30-2:15pm A Call to Arms: Racial Prejudice and White Opinion on Gun Control. Alexandra Filindra and Noah Kaplan (University of Illinois-Chicago)
- 2:15-2:30pm Break - refreshments available in the Rawles Room
- 2:30-3:15pm A New Realignment? Using Citizenship Status to Affect the Political Landscape and Black-Latino Relations. Claudia Sandoval (University of Chicago)
- 3:15-4:00pm Assessing the Validity and Reliability of Self-Reported Items on Likelihood of Migration. Sergio Wals (University of Nebraska)
- 4:00-4:15pm Break
- 4:15-5:45pm Author Meets Critics - Mobilizing Opportunities: The Evolving Latino Electorate and the Future of American Politics. Ricardo Ramírez (University of Notre Dame)
- 6:00pm Dinner (Location: Stryker Room, Schuessler Institute for Social Research)

Generously sponsored by the IU College of Arts & Sciences, Department of Political Science, and the Center for Research on Race and Ethnicity in Society (CRRES)