

REMEMBERING AND FORGETTING

thē·mes·ter FALL
2019
Ψ THE COLLEGE OF ARTS + SCIENCES

COMMEMORATION AND FORGETTING IN THE GATEWAY TO THE PACIFIC:

Japanese and African Americans in San Francisco's Foreign Relations and Neighborhoods

Dr. Meredith Oda

Thursday, November 14 // 4pm

Indiana Memorial Union Walnut Room

Co-Sponsors: Center for Research on Race and Ethnicity in Society (CRRES) and the College of Arts and Sciences' Themester, Asian American Studies Program, East Asian Languages and Cultures, U.S. History Workshop

Dr. Meredith Oda will discuss the ways in which US-Japan relations were commemorated in San Francisco after WWII, despite the mass internment of Japanese Americans.

thē·mes·ter